Dear Colleagues:

The results have now been tallied for the 2008 ACS High School Chemistry Scholarship Examination recently held on the campus of Indiana University Purdue Indianapolis. One hundred forty students competed in the two competitions representing fifteen central Indiana high schools. The scholarship and book awards results are attached. The exam/key with statistics are also attached, and will be available soon at the IUPUI Chemistry website, <http://www.chem.iupui.edu>, by following the link to the ACS Exam.

The Awards Special Event and Dinner will be held on Tuesday, May 13, 2007, at 5:30 PM in the Krannert Room (Clowes Auditorium lower level) on the campus of Butler University. Awards will be made to the ACS scholarship winners, Honorable Mention Awardees and School Awards for both the First Year and Advanced Competitions. If representatives of your team or school cannot be present, you will need to contact me for pick-up of your awards. We urge you to attend with your students.

Dinner and guest speaker presentation begin at 6 PM, with Awards to follow immediately. While I do not yet have the details on the presentation, they will be posted on the website when available (and I will inform you via e-mail). RSVP by noon, May 12 to Marty White at 317-276-4506, or via e-mail at mpwhite@lilly.com. Dinner cost for awardees will be complimentary, but will be $10 for their guests. Students are $5.

On behalf of the Indiana Section of the American Chemical Society, the Education Committee would like to congratulate all participants in the 2008 competition. It is an honor to be nominated and students should recognize the merit associated with this distinction. I would also like to express my gratitude to the teachers for the extra-mile they offer in the interest of student learning and recognition.

Sincerely yours,
